

M/ Ste Suzanne

27km/31'

Medieval city, dungeon, castle, beautifully restored old houses. Rich historical patrimony. Spectacular views, as the city is perched on a promontory overlooking the river Erve.

Numerous events, including re-enactments of medieval tournaments at the near-by Ferte-Clairbois

<http://www.ferteclairbois.com/>

Dolmen des Erves : Impressive Neolithic dolmen

Site du Tertre Ganne : A rocky promontory from which you discover a fantastic view of Ste Suzanne

Promenade des moulins : Walking path following the numerous water-mills which dotted the river

www.sainte-suzanne.com/

Musee de l'Auditoire : Small museum, retracing a thousand years of the history of the only fortified city that William the Conqueror could never conquer...

www.sainte-suzanne.com/musee/

The brand new Center for the Interpretation of History and Patrimony is worth a visit. It is actually a must !

